Call for Interdisciplinary Research Collaborations – 2025

ASOIU is pleased to announce an updated call for proposals to support interdisciplinary research collaborations between PhD students or academic researchers affiliated with ASOIU and international researchers. This initiative seeks to promote high-quality joint publications and foster innovative international research partnerships.

Objectives:

- Stimulate international, interdisciplinary research engagement.
- Facilitate joint scientific publications.
- Support initial stages of long-term research collaboration.

Financial Support:

Funding will be provided to cover eligible expenses such as:

- Travel (international round-trip airfare)
- Accommodation and per-diem allowances
- Registration fees for international conferences
- Research-related costs (e.g., data acquisition, consumables)

Eligibility Period: March 15 – December 31, 2025

Two Eligible Project Categories:

1. Research-Based Collaborations

Applications must include:

- A detailed justification of the project's novelty and scientific potential.
- A description of the planned research work, including expected outcomes.
- An invitation letter from the international collaborator.

If selected, ASOIU researchers will receive support for one round-trip flight, accommodation, and per-diem for visits to partner institutions or laboratories abroad.

2. Conference Participation

Applicants must provide:

- Details of the international conference where the joint work will be presented.
- Explanation of the relevance and future impact of the presentation.
- A copy of the accepted paper (note: abstracts or posters will not be funded).

Funding will be disbursed only after the paper is officially accepted for oral presentation and publication in the conference proceedings.

Application Requirements:

- Completed Application Form (in English)
- CV(s) of all participants (including list of publications, if applicable)
- Project abstract and supporting documents

Submission Instructions:
